In the foothills of Toxaway Mountain, high enough to get a long-range view but still an easy drive 5 minutes from the lake, sits a magnificent, well-maintained post and beam home on three lots. A stream with several cascading waterfalls runs along the edge of the property--three lots combined into one--and sounds of splashing water can be heard from the deck as you relax in your hot tub and enjoy the long range mountain views. Lake Toxaway Estates is a premier mountain lake community in western North Carolina featuring the state's largest private lake. It's ideal for water skiing, canoeing, kayaking, fishing, sailing, and pontoon boating. Residents may join Lake Toxaway Country Club and enjoy fine dining in the newly renovated clubhouse, plus golf, tennis, and croquet. Residents also enjoy The Greystone, an upscale country inn on the shore of Lake Toxaway.
