Complete in 2016, this extraordinary mountain loft perched on 1.11 acres overlooks panoramic views of four lakes, and layers of Blue Ridge majesty. Enjoy a front row seat to brilliant sunrises and a tapestry of flora and fauna unrivaled. Cool summer breezes or warm winter fires, Toxaway Mountain provides a respite from the hectic pace. This 3 bedroom 3 bath home nestled on the flattest ridge of a rhododendron-filled rain forest was originally designed by Yale architect, Lester Walker and adapted by Sam Brewton to capture the extraordinary views. Designed with high tech amenities and thoughtful mountain elements built to enhance efficiency and ease of living. Escape to the mountains where nature reigns, and the amenities of Cashiers, Highlands, Brevard and Asheville are within reach.
