An Al Platt mountain contemporary masterpiece. Completely renovated with breathtaking lake and mountain views in two directions which the current owner opened up even more. The indoor living is open, fresh, light and the very definition of luxury; but comfort and relaxation are everywhere. The spacious outdoor living areas capture those views and give you a covered, screened outdoor living room, dining room, fireplace and tv viewing area that make it hard to find reasons to go inside. An elevator seamlessly connects the levels. Lake Toxaway Estates is a lovely, established mountain community built around North Carolina's largest private lake. Membership to Lake Toxaway Country Club is per application and gives access to all the amenities of the community.
